Definition of processing activities

Commanders Act offers their customers a real-time marketing hub for smarter Omni-Channel engagement. The platform has four separate solutions which are subject to this evaluation: Trust Commander, Tag Commander, Mix Commander, Data Commander. The Trust Commander ensures the traceability of the consent. Within the Tag Commander customers can explore their full audience, define segments, and make them actionable. Mix Commander measures the contribution of marketing efforts and Data Commander enables marketers to define and refine segments, and associate segment or individual-specific omni-channel engagement rules and triggers.
